

Our Story

Candice Roberts, owner of LaserSkin Specialist, has over 10 years industry experience and is certified by Queensland Radiation Health.

She has one goal at her clinic and that is to give you real results.

Her passion is for people and making them feel amazing, all while ensuring her clients are better equipped to care for their skin from home, so you get the very best results from your skincare treatments.

It is important to Candice that her clients enjoy confidentiality and exceptional customer service, which is why she offers an exclusive boutique environment at the clinic.

Her personal approach ensures each client who visits the clinic, is treated individually, with procedures specifically tailored to achieve optimum results.

Treat Card Program

Join our loyalty program! For every dollar you spend, you receive a point towards your Treat Card.

Each point then accumulates to a selection of services you can redeem towards for free in the clinic.

Booking Policy
